Our Mission: "To know Christ and to make Him known"

Order of Worship

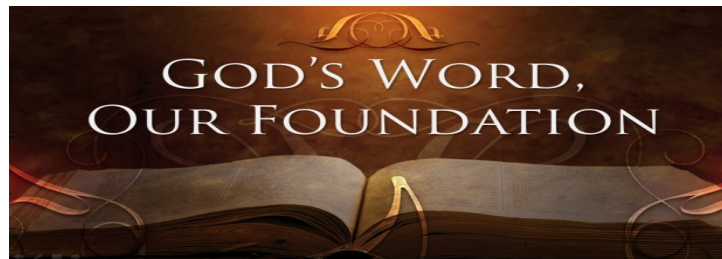

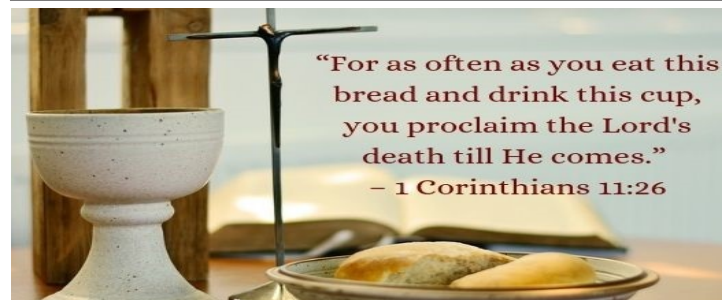

Worship is the act of ascribing ultimate value to something in a way that energizes and engages your whole person, and your whole being. When we are worshipping we are re-assigning the value of life from earthly thoughts to God. Biblical Worship is the act of ascribing value and living in accordance in such a way that it transforms our whole life.

“Blessing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart.” Ephesians 5:19

“Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord’s disciples. He went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem.” Acts 9:1-2

Quilts in Hallway:

Please tie all knots twice so they don't come undone.

There is good news for messy people, especially those who have made a mess of their lives; the Lord is really good at cleaning up our messes. He can turn our mess into a message.

Moses messed up his life big time. He was an Israelite who, through adoption, had been taken into Pharaoh's court. Presumably, he was being trained to be the next leader of Egypt. Moses wanted to help his fellow Israelites and went about it in the wrong way. He killed an Egyptian taskmaster who was beating an Israelite. Then he escaped to Midian, because Pharaoh wanted to kill him. (Exodus 3) God was saying, "Moses, I am the God of men who have failed and who need second chances. That means I can use you." (Exodus 3:7-8) God has seen, God has heard, and God knows (Hebrews 4:15). He is aware of what you're going through right now. God sees it, he hears it, and he knows it. He cares about you. The Lord was saying to Moses, "You are the man, and just like this burning bush, you're going to burn with my message." You would think that at this point, Moses would have fallen down on his face and said, "Thank you, Lord, for second chances!" Instead he became a human excuse machine. He said, "Who am I to appear before Pharaoh? Who am I to lead the people of Israel out of Egypt?" (Exodus 3:11) Moses did have a point, if you were God, would you have picked Moses? The Lord seems to go out of his way to choose flawed people. Maybe it's so that he will get the glory, ultimately. Moses learned some important lessons. In the court of Pharaoh, he was schooled in the ways of Egypt. He knew Egyptian culture, Egyptian art and Egyptian military strategies. He knew about all the Egyptian deities. All this would come in handy when he was facing off with the pharaoh. In the wilderness, Moses worked as a shepherd. He learned how to deal with wayward sheep. This would come in handy as he led an army of people through the wilderness for 40 years. Moses learned why impulsiveness was a bad idea, and he learned how to wait on the Lord. God is not looking for ability; he's looking for availability, what he really wants is just for someone to say, "Lord, I'm in. I'll go. I'll do it if you want me to do it."

God sees potential in us. Maybe we don't, maybe you look in a mirror and see flaws, shortcomings, but God sees what you will become: a mighty man or woman for him. Yet all too often we offer the same excuse Moses did as to why God would never work through us. It's based on the grace of God by which he calls us.

Jesus can take whatever wrong you've done and forgive you and be glorified in our lives still.
