Order of Worship

Worship is the act of ascribing ultimate value to something in a way that energizes and engages your whole person, and your whole being. When we are worshipping we are re-assigning the value of life from earthly thoughts to God. Biblical Worship is the act of ascribing value and living in accordance in such a way that it transforms our whole life.

“Blessing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart.” Ephesians 5:19

Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Matthew 28:18-20

BUT EXHORT ONE ANOTHER
EVERY DAY,
AS LONG AS IT IS CALLED “TODAY,”
THAT NONE OF YOU MAY BE HARDENED
BY THE DECEITFULNESS OF SIN. HEB. 3:13

"The Prayer Quilts"

Please stop by and say a prayer and tie a knot. Once all of the ribbons have been tied, the quilts are then given to the person for whom we prayed.

Quilts in Hallway:

Please tie all knots twice so they don't come undone.

"GO OUT
THERE AND
BE THE LIGHT
OF JESUS
CHRIST TO THE WORLD"

The eleven disciples were afraid they had failed Him. The resurrection had convinced them to stick with Jesus. They knew what was ahead; Jesus had already told them they would be hated and would die like He did. If a skeptic paid attention to this one simple fact about the disciples, it would erase any doubt about the reason for the creation of the church and the existence of the New Testament. The idea that these very ordinary men would have invented such a story and arranged for themselves to be killed is ludicrous. These unlettered men with calloused hands and uncultured accents were challenging the elite of Israel. Jesus knew their inner struggle; it was nothing new to Him. He had known many of the same struggles when He faced crucifixion.

If Jesus' words are to be believed, all authority God has made is certainly resident in one person and will now be channeled in His effort to rescue the world. This is all the authority needed to make disciples, and making disciples is the one thing Jesus has authorized His people to do. When a disciple wonders how much spiritual authority he has, the answer is "all of it." Isn't this the message needed by the vast majority of Church members who sit passively in the pews? The one thing the church has been commanded to do and has been given the authority to do is make disciples. The process we call "making disciples" includes evangelism and is done by disciples to make other disciples. That process includes just about everything we do in relation to people around us. Here comes the part of making disciples that requires grit and patience. The disciple making Jesus calls us to should lead us to reproduce. The goal is not just neighbors, friends and work associates. Jesus said that when the gospel was preached to all the nations, then the end would come. We feel obligated to say that the original word for "nations" is where we derive the English word "ethnic." Jesus is referring to all people groups rather than nations, which of course have changed boundaries, leaders, governments and names in the last two millennia.

In the church, we often talk about accountability more than we practice it because accountability and the commitment it requires can be unpleasant. No good relationship is conflict-free; without some degree of frustration and disagreement, we can't truly know and care about another person. We know that getting close to someone requires the risk of getting hurt and disappointed. When it comes to making disciples, to seeking and saving those who need God, accountability is the necessary missing piece; it must be done. God has promised to stick with us until the job is done. The promise is for those who are committed to this process. You can't count on this promise if you're wandering and meandering through life.
