Order of Worship

Worship is the act of ascribing ultimate value to something in a way that energizes and engages your whole person, and your whole being. When we are worshipping we are re-assigning the value of life from earthly thoughts to God. Biblical Worship is the act of ascribing value and living in accordance in such a way that it transforms our whole life.

"Blessing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart." Ephesians 5:19

"The one who is faithful in a very little thing is also faithful in much; and the one who is unrighteous in a very little thing is also unrighteous in much." Luke 16:10

The Principle of Little & Much

“One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is unreliable in a very little is also unreliable in much.” (Luke 16:10)

We have what is little and what is much, and there is a relationship between them. How one does with what is little is a clear indicator of how one will do with much. This is stated in both a positive and a negative way whether you are faithful or unreliable. This principle can be applied in many ways, for instance with parents working with children or bosses with employees, or even in relationships. If someone you are dating treats you poorly or lies to you, you can be sure that they will do so once you are married. Our focus is on how Jesus applies this principle. The “little” has to do with what we do or don't do in this world with the wealth God gives us, and the “much” has to do with what we will be our situation in the world to come, whether we will have the true riches that are our own. What we do or don't do with the little, determines the much. God knows based on what we have done with what is little, how we will do with the much of what is to come in the kingdom. The key in all of this is, ‘Will we give of our wealth to help the poor and needy?’ This is being faithful in the little; this is being reliable in the little. Then in Jesus gets to the heart of the matter in Luke 16:13. If we love God, we will do what God wants us to do with the little of this world's wealth, we will give to help those in need, but if we love our wealth, we will keep it for ourselves and we will not have friends to welcome us into the kingdom. The context here is the parable of the talents. Jesus is about to go away to the Father after his death and resurrection, and so Jesus leaves his kingdom work to his disciples, and the church. Some he gives a lot of responsibility, 5 bars of silver, to some 3 bars of silver and to some only 1 each according to our ability, and they are to fulfill their tasks. Jesus returns for the final judgment, and here we have the little and much principle stated clearly, as the master says to the one who had five bars of silver and increased them, and so on (Matthew 25:23). Like before with wealth, the “little” has to do with what we do or don't in regard to serving God with the tasks he has given us to do. The “much” has to do with what we will be our situation in the world to come what our levels of responsibility will be in the fullness of the kingdom. ‘Will we serve God and do what he has tasked us to do?’ Heed the note of warning with the third servant; if we are not faithful here, we will not have a place in the world to come but will go to place of weeping and gnashing of teeth (Matthew 25:30).

Be radical in your giving, don't let fear of being without hinder you. Serve God with abandon; don't let the things of this world distract you from what is truly important. Do this and you will be blessed with the much of the world to come, with what is true, with what is lasting and with what will be your own untold blessings in the kingdom of God.
